Janina Lichnofsky new Head of ESG

As of 1 July 2021, Janina Lichnofsky will be taking on the role of Head of ESG at MEAG. This is a new position that has been created within the framework of MEAG's strategic reorganisation and the intensification of ESG activities in all MEAG areas of business. Janina Lichnofsky will report directly to Dr. Michael Bös, Chief Investment Officer Alternative Assets.

Dr. Michael Bös, Chief Investment Officer Alternative Assets at MEAG: "I'm very happy that Janina Lichnofsky and her team are assuming responsibility for ESG; a topic that is of great importance to us and our clients. She brings a lot of know-how and experience with her to the position, and as an ESG specialist who is well-known even outside the industry, she is a big asset for us. She will continue to expand our ESG activities so that we can further improve our sustainability performance for our clients and meet our social responsibilities as an asset manager. I really look forward to working with her."

Janina Lichnofsky has been at MEAG since 1 July 2020 in a capacity as Senior Specialist Sustainability. Prior to that she held various positions, also management level, at ISS ESG | Institutional Shareholder Services. Most recently she headed a team of ESG specialists there that supported institutional customers in German-speaking countries. She began her career as a consultant in a strategic consulting company specialising in sustainability, where she was responsible, for instance, for projects in the field of impact investing. Janina Lichnofsky holds a Master's degree in Political Science & International Relations from Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität (LMU) in Munich and is an INREV-certified Sustainability Specialist for Real Estate. She has gathered international experience working on projects of the Friedrich-Ebert Foundation in Tanzania and as a student at University College Dublin, Ireland.

MEAG is the asset manager of Munich Re and ERGO. With offices in Europe, Asia and North America it also offers its extensive know-how to institutional investors and private clients from outside Munich Re Group. MEAG currently manages assets to the value of around EUR 328 billion, EUR 65 billion of which for institutional investors and private clients.
